Modern villa with several terraces and sea views in Genova

Villa with fantastic location located on a quiet street in Genova. The house is detached but belongs to a complex of three houses with a communal garden and pool area. This property is in a perfect condition with open spaces, several terraces and beautiful sea views. The generous living space of 345 m2 consists of four bedrooms, three bathrooms, one en-suite, a modern open kitchen with living area and a separate dining area. The house is surrounded by terraces of 120 m2 in total. Additional information: parking, central heating, double glazing, air conditioning, furniture included. Genova is an original quiet Majorcan village with direct access to the capital Palma. There are also several beaches and various golf courses within a short distance. The place is mainly famous for its flowstone caves as well as for its several restaurants with Majorcan food and meat specialties.
